

IT'S ALL ABOUT PEOPLE

OSM is a leading ship management and maritime services provider company

Manage and Develop our Technical Authority Team

OSM Maritime Group has significant growth within all segments we're operating in. We are seeking competent and enthusiastic manager for our Technical Authority Team doing verifications of regulation compliance for mobile offshore units

Main duties and responsibilities

- Maintain administrative system for verification of mobile offshore units' compliance with rules and regulations
- Manage verification team for mobile offshore units in operation including Norwegian offshore sector and deliver verification services for mobile offshore units in our management
- Support marketing of OSM's capability as independent verifier

Qualifications

- High competence and understanding of legislation, standards, and codes applicable for the marine and offshore industries including Norwegian offshore sector
- Experience from active use of legislation for marine and offshore projects and verification activities from authorities' side or internal verifications teams
- Management competence

Personal qualities

- Responsible and positive attitude, high work ethics
- Able to build networks externally and internally
- Demonstrate teamwork, interpersonal and communication skills
- Multi-discipline skills and understanding
- Ability travel, including travel offshore

OSM offer

- Challenging tasks and a wide range of responsibilities
- Personal growth and development for the right candidate
- Competent and exciting working environment, in a beautiful office at the seaside
- Flexible arrangement
- Competitive terms and attractive benefits
- Exciting work environment with positive and competent coworkers

